Encourage Your Family and Friends to Vote

Action 1: Get Informed and Share with Others

November 5th Is Rapidly Approaching

Below are news sources you may want to add to your Favorites List. As we know, not all news sources are the same. We must critically weigh the accuracy of the information we present to others.

These resources add new content frequently and cover important political, election and legislative news.

Action 2: Get Involved and Influence Others

Support State Initiatives

- ✓ Assess candidates' positions on critical issues, including election integrity and financial responsibility.

Find Ways to Increase Voter Registration

- ✓ If your state has online registration, help citizens register using it. If not, use the online tool at "True the Vote" to register or update a prior registration. Registrations can be checked through your Board of Elections.
- ✓ Plan a "family and friends" gathering and organize an activity to review registrations.
- ✓ If you have older teens, ask them to get their friends registered.
- ✓ Wear candidate gear, and when people ask you about the candidate, ask if they are registered.
- ✓ Work with your Ward Chair and Precinct Executive (PE) to register new homeowners or renters.

Help Candidates Get Their Messages Out to Voters

- ✓ Join the mobilization efforts of President Trump to elect candidates. Get involved with his new initiative "Trump Force 47." A site about encouraging early voting is "Swamp the Vote USA."
- ✓ Plan meetings with neighbors. Consider SIGN WAVES, distributing candidate literature, informal coffee meetings with candidates, fly your US flag and encourage others to do so. Start a Prayer Group.

Participate in Securing Free and Fair Elections

- ✓ Volunteer at your Board of Elections as a poll worker or observer. Also, check for paid positions.
- ✓ Contact House Representatives and Senators and request investigations of election integrity irregularities.

Discuss the Election and Potential Outcomes with Younger Generations

- ✓ Engage high school and college students who are interested in shaping their future. Recommend contacting "Turning Point USA."
- ✓ Ask your children and grandchildren what they are hearing at school about candidates and elections. Have discussions if their information seems incorrect.

Action 3: Donate

Give Time and Resources to Support Election Activities

- ✓ Please also remember that campaigns run on cash. If you can, support candidates financially.
